The Tawasi Campfire Girls, under the guardianship of Mrs. Grace Breitenfeldt, held their Annual Council Fire at her home last Tuesday, at which time the girls received their ceremonial jackets. When you see the snappy blue felt boleros being worn by the girls, remember that as honor beads are earned they will be sewed on the jackets. That way we will know who earns what and how much.

The birthday party of the week was for Kenyon Brewer, 17032 Glenburn Ave., honoring his fifth birthday. His mother, Betty, had decorated the dining room and table in rainbow-colored streamers with balloons and all. Streamers from a gorgeous blue and white birthday cake to tiny nutcrackers made the table decoration. The guests present to enjoy the fun and good times were Mike Fackel, Billy Mack, Johnny and Jimmy Allison, Gail Adamson, Danny Graham, Mark Stanford, and mother Mary. Kenyon's uncle, Mr. Edwin Pallock, a teacher at Westchester High School, was on hand to take colored movies of the goings on and will show them at a later date to the party-goers.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fletcher spent Saturday evening dancing to Lawrence Week's Champagne Music at the Aragon Ball Room in Ocean Park.

Our sympathy goes to the mothers on, Cerise Ave., whose families are reported on the sick list. The Cortez children, Garry and Brock Halbrook, Robbie and Richie Fannan to name a few.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Runstead, 18236 Roslin Ave., tell us that canasta has been very exciting at their home this past week while they are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Johnson of Mt. Pleasant, Utah, and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Barrett of Ventura.

Carl Davis, 18337 Roslin, has been confined to his home with the old flu bug this week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Kasenko and four youngsters, of 18330 Roslin Ave., recently moved to Manhattan Beach.

The El Nido Elementary School has organized its first PTA with Mr. Petrat as a temporary chairman. They elected nominating, by-laws, and hospitality committees at last meeting and March 26 will feature election of officers.

Square dancers in North Torrance were kept busy this past week-end. Saturday evening, at the Inglewood High School gymnasium, to the calling of Vera Baerg, were the Delbert Alford, Lewis Simons, David Dyers, and Ed Collins. Sunday the Dyers and Collins, guests of Lee Boswell and "Bets-out-of-order" callers club, drove to Sunny Hills for an afternoon of dancing. Sunday evening was the regular "Kicken Chickens" at Northrop Recreation Hall in Hawthorne.

The North Torrance Slitch and Chatter Club spent a gala Saturday evening at MacMaster Recreation Hall, starting with a ham dinner and all the fixings, then to games and dancing. Various prizes of garden tools and equipment were awarded, first prize of 100 lbs. of fertilizer going to Lloyd Van De Vort, 2604 W. 175th St. Good grower, Lloyd. A relay game getting men in ladies garments and vice versa added to the hilarity of the party of 36 guests.

Mrs. Robert Payne, leader of Girl Scout Troop 1371, tells us the troop is attending the Scout birthday party at Pan-Pacific Auditorium March 7. Each girl takes her own sack lunch and for 50 cents rides a chartered bus.

Mrs. Juanita Alford's Kado Campfire Girls took a hike last Saturday, lunching at all, finishing their first rank in nature study. Boy Scout Troop 761, with Scoutmaster Caton, swam at Long Beach Municipal Plunge Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lush, children Jon and Diana, 17523 Patonella, and Charlene Dyer spent the week-end in Costa Mesa. Barbara Dyer has been with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nikol, for the past two weeks.

The Mike Hardin family spent Sunday with relatives in Pasadena.

The North Torrance Community Church thanks all who are assisting with the work on the church in any way, especially J. R. Allison and crew. There is much to do and many items needed, mainly, a reed organ. If you know of one, please contact Rev. K. P. Zeller, 17035 Atkinson Ave., Menlo 4-0427.
